

Philippe Bertaud

“...Philippe takes benefit from his versatility to improvise without any limit into a creative universe and evolve the sonic potential of his instrument : from Haendel to Jimy Hendrix through Leo Brouwer, he plays with equal ease...”

“Philippe Bertaud is a virtuoso of the contemporary and classic guitar, but he's also a citizen of the world--with which he shares his joy of living and his taste for the journey. He relishes all whom he meets and his lyric quality shows through in the rooms in which he interprets, improvises and composes. The whole is passed on to a public conquered beforehand by their own experience of the world”
