

SHAIN

LIVE

Sat. Nov. 20th

Shain is a seasoned, accomplished musician and performer. His ability and repertoire cover a large area.

In his home studio he can be found writing, arranging and recording his own tunes , playing all the instruments and singing all the parts.

In performance you will normally find him on piano, acoustic guitar and harmonica.

He has built up quite a following through the years, but prefers the moniker bestowed upon him by "Baby Gramps", who has labeled him "the worlds greatest unknown guitarist!"

With an elegant finger-picking style, he slips in and out of tunes as diverse as Bach, the Beatles, Glenn Miller and Roger Miller. Suffice it to say you may just as easily hear " Classical Gas "juxta-positioned with " Love Potion# 9", as you would hear "Tocatta and Fugue in D minor" backed by "I'm an Old Cowhand."

He has formed and disbanded a few duo and trio groups such as "High and Dry," "the Space Pedestrians," and "the New Fogies."

A Cd or two may be available and you may expect a guest artist, such as Mel A. Justed, to assist with the mayhem.

Shain has just returned from the east coast where one of his tunes is being recorded by the band "Avalon." Expectations are high.

His performance at the Matrix has been specially requested by the management.
