LES BARKER with Jon Pfaff

"He may be the best writer of parodies & wordplays that the Englishspeaking world has ever heard!" -Tom Nelligan, Dirty Linen

From Manchester, England, Les Barker is an internationally-recognized humorist & writer of poems. He has written over 60 chapbcoks of verse, making famous such folk heroes as "Jason & the Arguments" & "Cosmo the Fairly Accurate Knife Thrower."

Peering at the world through a pair of impish eyes controlled by a strangelywired brain, Mr. Barker pokes gentle fun at as many human (& animal) foibles as possible. Come for an evening celebrating oddities in word & song (with help from Jon Pfaff) & Barker's side-splitting exploration of the world around us.

CAUTION:

For those who love to laugh, it may be a good idea to appoint a designated driver to get home!
