The Teachers

Karen Betts has worked with clay for over 15 years, as a partner with her husband at Gaeen Allusions, a pottery studio, located at 1278 Koontz Rd, south of Chehalis. She has taught drawing and clay art at the Arts Jamboree (Centralia Parks), the Book-n-Brush, and as a volunteer in the Chehalis schools.

Co-instructors, Karen and Nyssa Betts have taught Anime classes at the Arts Jamboree and the Indian Women's and Girls' Retreat. www.gaeenallusions.com.

Holly St. Clair has a Masters of Education. She has been teaching for over twenty years. She is currently a substitute teacher in the public schools, an educational consultant and is part owner of the Matrix Coffeehouse.

Jean Gaffey is an artist who does silkscreening, mail art, and multimedia recycle creations. She has done art with children in day care, at a private elementary school and she was coordinator of the recycle art project at the Los Angeles Children's Museum. She has a California Early Childhood Education teaching credential.

Class sizes are limited so call 740-0492 at your earliest convenience and leave a message indicating your interest- we will contact you to confirm.

Or you can make a reservation in person at the Matrix Coffeehouse:

Hours- Wednesdays, Thursdays & Fridays 5PM - late; Saturdays 11AM - late
